Subject: Complaints : Police Officers inaction because they are on break

Organization: programmers pelogy

Last Friday my wife was pick pocket at Water Tower while getting on a bus with our 2 small children. A hotel bell boy witnessed the incident and chased the 2 robbers. He asked two police officers sitting in a patrol car for assistance but they refused saying they are on their lunch break. The bell boy was able to get my wife's purse back but the robbers took all the cash and her credit cards.

The hotel and bell boy called my wife to inform her they have her purse. They provided info of the incident including the patrol car's #. We find this inaction by police officers to be outrageous and unacceptable.

My wife called the police dept to report the incident, but they did not file the report as she described - leaving out the portion about the police inaction.

We hope police officers on break are not relieve of their duty to protect and serve, else they should add onto the phrase "to serve and protect, except when we are on break."

My wife is very upset. I hope you can investigate this matter and report this as an isolated incident, and error of the police dept.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] resident
